Keep us in the true faith in him so that we might ever rejoice in his birth and finally see him with you and the Holy Spirit in all his glory forever and ever. Amen.

SERMON

John 1:6–8, 19–28

⁶ There was a man sent from God whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. ⁸ He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

¹⁹ Now this was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. ²⁰ He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, "I am not the Messiah."

²¹ They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

²² Finally they said, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³ John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way for the Lord.' "

²⁴ Now the Pharisees who had been sent ²⁵ questioned him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

²⁶ "I baptize with water," John replied, "but among you stands one you do not know. ²⁷ He is the one who comes after me, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie."

²⁸ This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Q: Who is this Christ-child?

A: For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form (Colossians 2:9).

Q: What has this Christ-child done for us?

A: This is how God showed his love among us: he sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him (1 John 4:9).

A: For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich (2 Corinthians 8:9).

P: Why has God redeemed us?

C: In order that I might be his own, live under him in his kingdom, and serve him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness.

P: How do we know this?

C: Even as he is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.
